Babymoon walk

If you want a romantic honeymoon retreat, but you've got a little one on the way, now's the perfect time to enjoy a self-indulgent break before the baby arrives. La Maison d'Ulysse, a small luxury hotel in the South of France, has put together a Babymoon package in the French countryside, which is ideal for enjoying your precious time together pre-baby. Take a walking tour around the idyllic village of Baron, a pampering spa treatment or an intimate feast at the hotel's restaurant, just the two of you. La Maison d'Ulysse was recently voted in the Top 25 Coolest Hotels in the World and is set in a lovingly restored, independently owned 16th Century building steeped in history close to Nimes and Avignon. The Babymoon Walking Tour takes parents-to-be on a guided stroll around the local village of Baron, with its hilltop feudal castle, ending with a relaxing walk across a beautiful vineyard. La Maison d'Ulysse also offers a range of spa treatments suitable for mothers-to-be. Dads-to-be can also prepare themselves for their little arrival by opting for a relaxing massage or taking a dip in the hotel's own Turkish bath.

Luxury in the Wilderness

Disneyland Paris has opened its magical gates to bring to life couples' dream weddings in a storybook setting with Sleeping Beauty Castle as a backdrop. Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings is offering two wedding collections – Royal Wedding Collections where couples can design an entirely personalized celebration and Romantic Wedding Collections where they can choose from a range of wedding packages. The Royal Wedding Collections offer unique entertainment and exclusively-designed settings that make this bespoke celebration an ultimate fairytale wedding. The Romantic Wedding Collections allow couples to choose from an array of venues with spectacular themes. They can then select unique add-on enhancements, such as Disney characters or live music, to make this celebration extra magical. Disney's Fairy Tale Wedding specialists have been making dreams come true in Disney destinations around the world for 25 years. Couples can now rely on both their expertise and experience nearer home at Disneyland Paris, Europe's number one tourist destination, which boasts two theme parks, seven themed Disney hotels, several event venues and Sleeping Beauty Castle as a magic setting.
