◀ History, culture and beautiful beaches in Sri Lanka

Overlooking the Indian Ocean on Sri Lanka's southwest coast, the brand new Amari Galle Sri Lanka is a romantic haven, surrounded by lush greenery on a beautiful beachfront site. A multi-tiered pool deck with direct beach access is perfect for days spent lounging in the sun. Amari's signature Breeze Spa offers treatments to completely relax, and for those special evenings there's a rooftop bar and Ahara Gourmet Gallery, serving exquisite Asian dishes, freshly prepared in front of your eyes, at live cooking stations. Amari Galle Sri Lanka is perfectly located to explore the destination's many historical and cultural features, including the famous Galle Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Thomas Cook is offering seven nights at Amari Galle Sri Lanka from £879 per person, on a bed and breakfast basis. Price is based on two people sharing a Deluxe Ocean View Room. The offer includes flights from Heathrow with Qatar Airways. Prices based on travel until 31 October 2017.

▶ Explore Provence in the stunning south of France

Set in a lovingly restored 16th-century building that is steeped in history, La Maison d'Ulysse is the perfect blend of boutique hotel and luxury guest house, providing a relaxed, welcoming and authentic atmosphere. Hidden away in French countryside with only nine rooms, the hotel is ideal for honeymooners who are looking for seclusion and total romance. Situated in the absolutely beautiful south of France, near Uzès, Nîmes and Avignon, La Maison d'Ulysse finds itself in an opportune position for those looking to explore a location blessed with a rich cultural heritage. Newlyweds can spend their time strolling around the picturesque vineyards sampling delicious French blends, indulging in the spa and Turkish baths or enjoying curated culinary delights, à la fresco style, at the hotel's restaurant. Rates at La Maison d'Ulysse start from £1,274 per room per week, based on two people sharing the Ulysse room on a bed and breakfast basis.
